Hotel recommendations in Puerto Vallarta: There is an array of lodging options in Puerto Vallarta in all price ranges, from airbnb to nice resorts. I suggest you use my address as a starting point and google hotels in PV.

Old Town, Romantic Zone, or Central Zone. Great beach, restaurants, and range of hotels. Very walkable. Very “Mexican” feel. About 15-minute taxi to my house. Buses run from this part of town to my house. The green R-35 bus runs from Old town through Central and stops directly in front of my house.

Hotel Zone. Range of hotels and prices, most on the beach. Less walkable and less “Mexican” feel. 5-10-minute taxi to my house.

Marina. Close to airport, nice hotels, some restaurants. Less “Mexican” feel. About 15-minute taxi to my house.

Nuevo Vallarta. Mostly all-inclusive resorts, not walkable, and almost no “Mexican” feel. 25-30-minute taxi to my house. Not recommended.

Airbnb. Recently, a number of workshop participants have stayed at Airbnb rooms around town.

Getting to my house. You can give the following directions to a taxi to get to my house. Ask how much the ride will be in advance.

Bright yellow house just off Francisco Villa on Av de Las Gaviotas. In front of Pikado Bar and Bomberos park. Fourth house down from the radio station on Av de Las Gaviotas.

Casa Amarilla brillante a lado de Av Francisco Villa en Av de Las Gaviotas. Frente el Pikado Bar y al parque bomberos. Cuarta casa desde el radio en Av de Las Gaviotas.
